

Journal of Post Keynesian Economics

Information for Contributors

Instructions for Submission of Manuscripts

Preliminary inquiries, special issue proposals, and manuscripts not exceeding 30 double-spaced pages (including all figures, tables, appendices, and notes) should be submitted in Microsoft Word or WordPerfect® format via email to: Diane L.M. Wittig, Ed.D. (dwittig@mesharpe.com). The submission of hard copies of papers is not accepted. Submission implies that a paper has not been previously published and that the author neither has nor will submit the paper elsewhere while it is under consideration. The cover page should provide full affiliation, the mail and e-mail addresses, and telephone number(s) of the corresponding author. The title page should include the paper title and the names and affiliations of all authors.

Accepted Papers: Consent Form and Style Instructions

Authors of papers that have been accepted for publication must complete and sign the form "Consent to Publish/Transfer of English-language Rights," and provide it to the Editor with the final copy of his/her paper. The software and formats used for the text and graphics files should be identified.

All tables and charts or other art should be submitted in separate files from the main text of the manuscript and the diskettes must indicate the program used to create them. DO NOT embed them in the main text of the manuscript.

DO NOT use the automatic footnoting feature in your word processor. Notes should be indicated by a superscript number in the text, and the note text should be placed as regular running text at the end of the manuscript or in a separate file.

References

The reference list should be provided at the end of the paper. The references should be arranged alphabetically according to the name of the first author or editor. References should be provided as follows.

References to Items in Periodicals

These should take the form: author(s), title, journal (italicized or underlined), volume and issue numbers, date, inclusive pages. For all authors, last names are given first; likewise for editors, with the names followed by "ed." The name of the last author ends with a period. More than two authors are separated by semicolons. The date is given in parentheses. Example:

Notes

17. T.H. Davenport and M.C. Beers, "Managing Information About Processes," Journal of Management Information Systems 12, no. 1 (summer 1995): 57–80.
18. John Smith, "Why Economics?" New York Times, April 1, 1999: 25.

References

- Davenport, T.H., and M.C. Beers. "Managing Information About Processes." Journal of Management Information Systems 12, no. 1 (summer 1995): 57–80.
- Smith, John. "Why Economics?" New York Times, April 1, 1999: 25.

References to Books

Author(s) are specified in the same style as for periodicals. In the title, all principal words are capitalized and the title is italicized or underlined. The title ends with a period and is followed by city, ":", publisher, year. Example:

Notes

19. J. Nonaka, The Knowledge-Creating Company (New York: Oxford University Press, 1995), 65.

References

Nonaka, J., and H. Takeuchi. The Knowledge-Creating Company. New York: Oxford University Press, 1995.

Figures and Tables

All figures and tables to be included in a paper must be specifically referred to in the text and should have brief, descriptive captions. For optimal reproduction figures or photos should be submitted as TIFF (300 dpi), high quality jpeg or EPS (800 dpi), black and white, with all fonts embedded. Lettering and other elements in figures should be large enough to be readable when the figure has been reduced to fit the journal page.

Proofs and Reprints

Authors will receive page proofs of their papers, which should be returned to the publisher within five working days. Each author will receive a free copy of the issue in which his or her paper appears. Additional copies of the journal and/or reprints may be ordered at the time the proofs are returned.

Contact the managing editor at:
Diane L.M. Wittig, Ed. D. (dwittig@mesharpe.com)
Journal of Post Keynesian Economics
M.E. Sharpe
80 Business Park Drive
Armonk, NY 10504